HOC SIGNO FORTUNA.

BALTIMORE, MONDAY, July 23, 1821.

No time to be lost.

Agreeably to the announcement heretofore made, the drawing of the GRAND STATE LOTTERY of Maryland will take place on Wednesday the 15th of NEXT MONTH, when the first drawn Number will be entitled to ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS.—Those not yet supplied with Tickets, should not delay a moment in sending on their Orders, so that they may secure chances in time, and be prepared for the FLOATING PRIZES which may be drawn on the First Day.

Prizes for Blanks!

It should be recollected that for a considerable part of the drawing of the GRAND STATE LOTTERY, there is no possible risk; because, by the arrangement of the scheme, the first three thousand Blanks are entitled to Ten Dollars each—thus giving a very decided advantage to the early adventurer, who must have a prize, if his Number be drawn at all during that time. These privileges are not usually given.

Guarantee on Share Tickets.

The unusual great demand for Share Tickets in the Grand STATE LOTTERY, may in some degree be accounted for by the confidence of the public in the payment of the Share Tickets, which being issued under the provisions of the Act of Assembly and the countersign of the Commissioners, they become thereby as valid as the original Whole Tickets, and the prompt payment is guaranteed in the same manner. The security thus given to the adventurer who makes his investment in Shares, is solid, and he is certain to realize the good luck which Fortune may favour him with.

These advantages however are special for the Grand State Lottery only; no other Scheme at present published, gives to the adventurer, these important and necessary securities.

Health of Baltimore.—There have been no new cases of Malignant Fever during the last week;—the alarm which had been momentarily excited has entirely subsided, and we hope the precautions taken by the police will effectually prevent a recurrence of fever.

Health of New Orleans.—The ship Braganza arrived at New York on Wednesday in fifteen days from New Orleans, and at the time of her sailing, says the N. Y. American, "we are informed on the authority of the board of health, that not a single case of yellow or malignant fever was known to exist in that city."

In Charleston, there were 31 deaths for the week ending the 11th of July. Of this number 14 were white, and 17 colored people.

Five days later from London.—By an arrival at Boston from Halifax, London dates to the 16th of June have been received. They were brought to Halifax by the British Packet Montague, in 20 days from Falmouth. Accounts from St. Helena to the 16th of April, had been received at Portsmouth, (Eng.) which stated that Bonaparte was very ill with the dropsy. The accounts from Constantinople are of the most afflicting nature. The Grand Seigneur exasperated at the news from the Archipelago, had ordered that all the Christian Churches in the capital should be immediately destroyed.

This order had been immediately obeyed, with an excess of phrenzy. Sixteen churches had been razed from their foundations. To a representation from the Russian Ambassador that the violence would offend all christianity, the Ottoman government replied merely that the Sultan was master there; and the grievance had been dictated by reasons of state. There is also accounts of many horrid massacres in the Turkish dominions, and some trifling disturbances had recently taken place at Madrid.

Late intelligence from Turkey, stated that the vanguard of the army of Prince Ypsilanti the Greek commander in chief of the Insurgents was at Adrianople, a distance of about 30 leagues from Constantinople. The troops of the Grand Seigneur had been defeated and dispersed—and three Turkish Frigates were in readiness in the Bosphorus to take the Grand Seigneur, his riches, wives, and concubines, said to amount to 800, to his dominions in Asia.

The Greek patriarch, murdered by the Turks at Constantinople, was 80 years of age—his body was thrown into the Bosphorus. He is said to have been honored in the Greek church as the popes were in the Latin in the 12th century; and his death, it was thought, would cause a great excitement. The Greek monks and priests are numerous—20,000 of the former were on mount Athos alone; and 2,400 more in the Morea—in the rest of Greece there was supposed to be about 28,000 priests or papas.

Great terror prevailed at Smyrna, when the news of the outrages at Constantinople reached that city. The Turks and Greeks were mutually alarmed—each calculating that the other would be the assailant, and thousands had precipitately fled in the greatest possible confusion.

The Coronation of Louis the 18th, was to take place at Rennes, on the 25th August, and as the Pope was too much enfeebled through extreme old age, the ceremony was to be performed by Cardinal Gonsalvi, as the prime Minister of his Holiness.

Sir Thomas Lawrence has lately finished a very fine painting of Mr. West, the late President of the Royal Academy, which was ordered by the American Academy of Fine Arts in the city of New York. Sir Thomas has obtained permission to exhibit it in England for one year, when it will be shipped to New York.

Discovery.—Mr. Leinberger, of Nuremberg, has solved the problem of giving horizontal direction to balloons, and offers to make a journey from Nuremberg in that conveyance, as soon as the Royal Society of London shall have guaranteed the payment of £20,000 offered as a premium for the discovery.

Keep to the right.—A trial lately took place in New Jersey on an action of trespass, in the course of which it appeared in evidence that the plaintiff was riding in a sulkey in the right hand path of the road, the defendant in a wagon, and driving in his left hand path of the road, met the plaintiff—the defendant did not turn out so as to permit the plaintiff to pass, but struck the sulkey of the plaintiff and broke it—the expense of repairing the sulkey amounted to $8 75. Upon a full argument of the law in this case by the counsel of the plaintiff and defendant, the court rendered judgment for the plaintiff with costs.

We are indebted, says the Democratic Press, to the London New Monthly Magazine, for the following facts: The Bank of England constantly employs more than a thousand persons under its roof, who were, in the late war, embodied into a volunteer regiment. There are sixty signing clerks at a salary of £300 each. This expense of £18,000 per annum is expected to be saved by the new Bank Notes, on which the signature is to be stamped by machinery. The whole process of printing the notes is carried on within the walls of the bank. All notes returned to the Bank are immediately cancelled by tearing off the signatures. They are thus preserved for twenty years, to refer to as evidence in pecuniary transactions. It is the only incorporated bank in England—the Bank of Scotland is the only incorporated one in that kingdom; and the Bank of Ireland, the only incorporated bank in Ireland. They have have no branches, but that of Ireland, by a late act of Parliament, had its capital increased, and been authorised to establish six branches. From official returns, it appears that, in 1820, there were 766 licensed Bankers in England and Wales, and 53 in Scotland. Total 849.

Bank of the U. S.—A meeting of the President and Directors of the Bank of the U. S. was held in Philadelphia last Thursday, for the purpose of taking into consideration the propriety of discontinuing the agency in England for the payment of the dividends, on such portion of the capital stock of that Bank as may be held by persons residing in Europe. After reading a report prepared by a committee appointed for that purpose, the following resolutions were adopted:

1st. Resolved, That the Agency for the payment in England, of Dividends on the capital stock of this Bank, held by persons resident in Europe, be, and is hereby from henceforth, discontinued, except so far as is declared in the resolution next succeeding.

2d. Resolved, That the Bank will continue to pay the dividends on stock held by persons residing in Europe, according to its resolve of the 28th day of November, one thousand eight hundred and sixteen, in all cases, in which requisitions, in due form, have been received, or shall be executed in Europe, and be actually received at the Bank in Philadelphia, on or before the first day of September next; but such Dividends shall cease to be paid in England, so soon as the stock shall cease to belong, bona fide, to persons residing in Europe.

3d. Resolved, That this report and these resolutions be published in the National Intelligencer, and in those Gazettes in the City of Philadelphia, in which the Bank is accustomed to insert public notices; and that a copy thereof be sent to Messrs. Baring, Brothers and Company the Agents of the Bank in London.

L. CHEVES, President.

Attest—THOMAS WILSON, Cashier.

CHARLESTON, July 17.

SURRENDER OF THE FLORIDAS.

By the arrival last evening of the sloop Wasp, capt. Chester, from St. Augustine, we learn that the American flag was hoisted at that place on the 10th inst. At 5 o'clock in the morning a salute was fired from the Fort by the Spanish troops, and the Spanish flag displayed. At three P. M. the American colours were hoisted with Spanish, and the American troops landed at the South Battery, and marched directly to the Fort. —At 4. the Spanish troops marched out, and the Spanish flag was lowered under a salute of 21 guns from the fort, which was answered by the U. S. schrs. Tartar and Revenge, at anchor in the harbor.
